SUBJECT: PANS: Expired Procurement Solicitations and Notices

The SPO is working to achieve greater speed and efficiency with our notices site and to ready the State for a more robust system in the future. Therefore, effective September 1, 2016, all procurement solicitations and notices that are 60 days past the due date will be purged from the SPO Procurement and Awards Notices System site (<http://spo3.hawaii.gov/notices/notices>). Agencies are encouraged to retrieve all records, as needed, before the September 1, 2016 deadline.

The purge will only affect:

- Notices of solicitation and other notices placed on the 'notices' portion of the site.

It will not affect:

- Award postings, including Professional Services Awards;
- CPO approval requests;
- HlePRO solicitations or awards.
